

Natasha J Bella presents ‘The Collaborative Approach’, an insightful talk about the importance of teamwork. Which Natasha knows is vital, whenever a photographer works with a model, in order to achieve the best results. Natasha’s own unique experience as a freelance and commercial model, and as a photographer and educator, makes her especially qualified to explain what it takes to create powerful, arresting, and Award-Winning images of models, from Fashion, to Fine Art Nude.

Showcasing images from her portfolio, explaining the stories behind the photographs, and giving insights into the processes involved, Natasha is sure to inspire, motivate and excite all photographers interested in working in this area.

As a model, Natasha has featured in commercial work for global brands including Credit Suisse, Emirates Airlines, AirBnB and Old Mutual Wealth, to name but a few. Working freelance, images of Natasha, achieved using her Collaborative Approach, have won dozens of awards in the UK, South Africa, Asia and across the globe. Including awards from the Master Photography Association, the Guild of Photographers, and the Royal Photographic Society.

Working from her own studio in Leeds, Natasha runs regular sell-out workshops, as well as one-to-one tutorials, to help photographers better understand how to work with a model to secure great results every time.

Natasha says “I know that when a photographer, a model, a set, and a lighting set-up click is when the best results are achieved. There is a way to get that “click”, and that’s what I love to help photographers achieve”.
